Numb. LXIX.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, March 5. to Friday, March 13. 1729-30.

Bruſſels, Sept. 16.

ON Wedneſday laſt, was celebrated, at our Court, with the utmoſt Magnificence, the Birth-day of her moſt Serene Highneſs the Arch-Dutcheſs Maria-Anna of Auſtria, their Imperial Catholick Majeſties Second Daughter, who then entred her 12th Year. Her moſt Serene Highneſs, our Arch Dutcheſs Governor, received on this Occaſion, the Compliments of all the Nobility in their Feſtival Habits; and towards the Evening ſhe went to the Great Theatre to ſee the Italian Opera. At her Return ſhe met the Holy Viaticum, carrying to a ſick Perſon by the Curate of the Parochial Church of St. James Van Cauberg: Her Highneſs immediately came out of her Coach, and accompanied our good Lord to the Houſe of the ſaid Patient, and thence back again to the ſaid Parochial Church, with a Taper in her Hand, imitating therein the Piety and Devotion of her auguſt Anceſtors.

Warſaw, Octob. 15. The Adherents of King Staniſlaus ſeem much tranſported with Joy at the Birth of a Dauphin; which they have celebrated by ſumptuous Feaſts, at which they drank ſeveral myſterious Healths. The Motions of the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia make us ſuſpect that they are meditating ſome conſiderable Enterprize, which gives much uneaſineſs to the Senators devoted to the Intereſt of the Republick, and makes them take Meaſures to endeavour to preſerve their Liberties. The Proteſtants of Thorn are in a great Conſternation, ſince they have had freſh Notice given them, that they muſt anſwer in ſix Weeks to the Demands that would be ſignified to them touching the Inexecution of ſeveral Articles of the Sentence pronounced againſt that City in 1724.

Amſterdam, Octob. 23. The Squadron of this Republick compoſed of 12 Men of War, which hath been this Summer at Spithead, is now ſeparated; 3 of thoſe Ships are ſailed for the Mediterranean, 5 are in the Texel, and the other 4 are gone to their reſpective Ports.

Letters from Malaga of the 17th paſt, bring lamentable Accounts of Damages received there by exceſſive Rains, Thunder, Lightning and Hail, that ſome Stones meaſured 2 Inches Diameter, by which great Quantities of Fruits are deſtroy'd.

Letters from Alicant bring the like or worſe Account of Damages, done by the ſaid Storm.

Moſco, Nov. 8. N. S. The Duke de Liria, his Catholick Majeſty's Embaſſador Extraordinary, lies dangerouſly ill; his Indiſpoſition is attributed to the ſevere Air of theſe Regions, in this Winter Seaſon, to which his Excellency cannot yet inure himſelf: Our Emperor has made him a Preſent of ſome rich Furs, as he has alſo to the other foreign Miniſters.

Dantzick, Nov. 11. We have Advice, that in Poland they were about to lay a new Tax on all the Jews in their Dominions, the Number whereof is computed to 36,000 Perſons; and it is reckoned this Tax will raiſe 100,000 Ducats per Annum.

Vienna, Nov. 23. N. S. The Council of State has frequent Meetings upon account of the Contents of the Diſpatches brought by an Expreſs which is arrived from Seville with the News that the King of Spain was entred into Alliance with the Allies of Hanover, and that theſe laſt were obliged to furniſh his Catholick Majeſty with the Aſſiſtance neceſſary to put the Infante Don Carlos, his Son, in poſſeſſion of the Dutchies of Parma and Tuſcany.

Copenhagen, Nov. 26. The 19th Inſtant in the Afternoon a Canon being to be caſt, his Daniſh Majeſty went to the Foundery in this City. Within the Houſe appointed for that Purpoſe, was a Scaffold of 16 or 18 Steps from the Floor, for the Court, where his Majeſty and his Attendance ſtood to ſee the Performance, and beſides them a Crowd of all Sorts of People had been permitted to get upon the ſame Place. In the Middle of the Work the Mould of the Cannon burſt, but did no Hurt; only the hot Metal ſetting Fire to ſome Parts of the Houſe where it fell, terrified the People, ſo that every one preſſing forward to ſave himſelf, his

Majeſty

Majeſty was puſhed off the Scaffold as he was going to deſcend the Stairs, and ſeveral Perſons along with him. He was preſently taken up by an Officer, and convey'd to the Palace in the firſt Coach they found at the Door; the Heat of the Place, the Surprize, and the Violence of the Fall had taken away his Senſes, but by Bleeding and other proper Applications he was ſoon recovered. His Majeſty had a Bruiſe on his Side, ſuppoſed to be occaſioned by the Hilt of his Sword, which was broke to Pieces in the Fall. The Prince Royal being otherwiſe engaged that Day, did not go with the King to the Foundery. As ſoon as the Place was clear, the Fire was eaſily extinguiſhed; and no Miſchief was done, but what proceeded from the Hurry and Diſorder of the Crowd. The Grand Marſhall of the Court is very much Hurt, but no Perſon of Diſtinction beſides. His Daniſh Majeſty has not ſtirred out of his Chamber ſince the Accident; but is ſaid to be in good Health.

Paris, Nov. 30. It is notified here, that in Conſequence of the Treaty between Spain and the Allies of Hanover, Orders are already given to unrig all the Ships of War, which were equipped at Thoulon, Breſt and Rochelle, and to diſcharge the Seamen, after having paid them their Wages.

Decemb. 10. Mr. Stanhope, firſt Plenipotentiary of Great Britain, who has been in Spain, returned from Seville the 2d Inſtant. The King of Spain made him a Preſent of a Gold Snuff-Box ſet with Diamonds, with his Picture.

London, Octob. 11. Laſt Monday there was a Regimental Court Martial held at the Horſe Guards, Whitehall, before which two private Centinels belonging to the Guards were tried, the one a Grenadier of the firſt Regiment for Mutiny and Deſertion, and found Guilty, and ordered to be ſhot; the other a Hatman belonging to the third Regiment, for ſpeaking opprobrious Words againſt his preſent Majeſty, of which he was found Guilty, and ordered to be whipt, and afterwards drum'd out of the Regiment with a Halter about his Neck.

Octob. 25. This Morning a Mare is to draw a Load of Hay from Chigwell to the Turnpike near White-chapel (which is about 10 Miles) in 6 hours and an half, on a Wager of 6 Guineas. If ſhe wins, the Loſer is to give 10 l. for her.

On Tueſday Night, when the Workmen in his Majeſty's Dock Yard at Woolwich were going Home from thence, the Sail-makers were ſtopt, and lock'd in the Pay-office, while their Lockers in the Sail-Loft were open'd, in which conſiderable Quantities of Sail Cloth were found.

Octob. 21. We have an Account that among other Propoſals to be made by Col. Stanhope, the Britiſh Miniſter, 'tis certain he was to inſiſt on the following Points, viz.

1. That his Catholick Majeſty do ſolemnly engage not to acknowledge for the King of Great Britain, any other than ſuch as have an undoubted Right to ſucceed to that Crown by virtue of Treaties and Laws at preſent ſubſiſting.

2. That his Catholick Majeſty ſhall entirely abandon the Intereſt of the Pretender.

3. That his Catholick Majeſty ſhall quit all Intereſt with his Adherents, and oblige them to leave his Dominions, and not to return, on Pain of exemplary Puniſhment.

We have Advice from the County of Antrim, that laſt Wedneſday the High-Sheriff went with the Poſſe Comitatus and 2 Troops of Coll. Bole's Regiment (who were ordered by the Government to attend the Sheriff) to give Poſſeſſion of two Thirds of the Manſion-houſe of Portglenon, to Francis Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor; That a great Number of Highlanders well armed, kept the Garriſon, and on the firſt Attack, the High-Sheriff was ſhot in the Right Arm with a ſingle Ball, the Sub-Sheriff and 2 or 3 of the Poſſe were killed dead on the Spot, and ſeveral other Perſons deſperately wounded; whereupon the commanding Officer raiſed a Trench to defend the Troops, and ſent for a Party of the ſame Regiment to guard the Houſe, 'till the Government is pleaſed to ſend ſome Field Pieces, without which it will be almoſt impoſſible to take the Houſe; for the oppoſite Party have all ſworn to loſe their Lives, rather than Surrender.

Letters from Belfaſt ſay, that the Harveſt there has been ſo good and plentiful, that new Oatmeal is ſold for 12 d. per Peck, and the beſt Wheat for 10 and 11 s. per Barrel. The ſame Letters add, that there was lately found in a Marl-pit, a great Depth in the Ground, in the County of Down, 4 Miles from Belfaſt, a Stag's Horns entire, the Diſtance betwixt the Tip of each Horn is 10 Foot, and the Breadth of the Palm is 12 Inches, and their Weight is much as a Man could carry.

Nov. 18. The Jaſon, Capt. ——— from Jamaica, bound to Briſtol, was loſt the 7th Inſtant near Milford, but her Crew were ſaved; ſhe had 20 Tons of Indico on board, and was reckoned to be worth 10,000 l. She buried three Captains ſince her Departure from Briſtol.

Our laſt Advices from Stockholm give Account, that his Swediſh Majeſty has iſſued a Decree, declaring his Reſolution to aſſert the Privileges of the Proteſtants of Poland and Pruſſia, on the Foot of the Treaty of Oliva, not only by Negociations, but by Force of Arms in Caſe of Neceſſity.

We learn from Poland, that the People are divided into 3 Parties, touching the Election of their future Kings; one for the Electoral Prince of Saxony, another for King Staniſlaus, and a Third, conſiſting of the Chief Grandees, who have entered into a Confederacy, and united for a free Choice out of their own Nation.

Decemb. 1. Yeſterday being the Feſtival of St. Andrew, their Majeſties went to the Royal Chapel at St. James's, preceded by the Heralds and Purſuivants at Arms, attended by the Knights of the Garter, Thiſtle and Bath, with the Collars of the reſpective Orders, and a great Number of Nobility: The Sword of State was carried by the Earl of Orkney, and the Sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Herring, one of his Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary.

On Saturday laſt was tried the Cauſe depending in the Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, between Henry Mould, an Attorney at Law, Plaintiff, and Francis Jenniſon, Eſq; Juſtice of Peace for the County of Middleſex, and a Conſtable and a Beadle Defendants, on an Action brought againſt the Defendants for an Aſſault and falſe Impriſonment, in ſetting the Plaintiff two Hours in the Stocks for ſwearing 45 Oaths: After a full Hearing the Jury found a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and allowed him 50 l. Damage againſt the ſaid Juſtice.

Province of New-Hampſhire, Cur' Admt'.

Portſmouth, Jan. 25. This Day was held here a Court of Admiralty, where Benjamin Norris was Convicted for cutting down a White Pine Tree, of above Thirty-ſix Inches Diamiter, fit for making a Maſt for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Royal Navy; without his Majeſty's Royal Licence for ſo doing firſt had and obtained; for which he was adjudicated to pay the Penalty (See our Gazette No. 47.) according to Act of Parliament in that Caſe made and provided.

Boſton, Feb. 16. On Thurſday laſt came on at the Superior Court now ſitting, the Trial of Paul Vunice, who ſometime ſometime ſince was committed here on ſuſpicion of counterfeiting and uttering divers of the Bills of Credit of the Colony of Rhode-Iſland; and after a fair Hearing the Caſe was committed to the Jury, who found him Guilty: but he has not as yet received his Sentence.

We hear from Eaſt-Hampton on Long-Iſland, that Capt. Richard Shaw's Houſe took Fire in the Night, the 7th of January laſt, and was burnt down; and that his Wife, who was a young Woman of about 20 Years, and 3 Negro's were burnt to Death.

SIR, New-Caſtle, March 9, 1729-30.

I Send you a Copy of the dying Speech of William Kelſey, who was executed on Saturday laſt for Burglary and burning the Goal of this County; he would not ſuffer any Perſon to write it for him, but penned it himſelf. I cannot eaſily conceive how any Man could die with a greater Preſence of Mind, than this unfortunate Fellow.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c.

COPY of William Kelſey's Speech and Dying Words.

I Hope this will be an Example to all that behold me this Day, and that they will refrain all evil Ways: for I confeſs to God and this Congregation, that I have been a great Sinner, but eſpecially theſe four or five Years paſt. The Sin which I was firſt guilty of, was the BREAKING THE LORD's-DAY in many Ways, and that led me into other grievous Sins: Then Secondly, diſobeying my Mother, who gave me many good Counſels, but I refuſed to take them; for my Father died when I was a Child. Thirdly, The firſt Sin I was guilty of in Stealing, was one Shilling one Penny in Silver, which I ſtole from my Brother, and that led me into another of the ſame kind: for I went and broke a Man's Barn, and ſtole a Sack out of the ſame, and went and ſold it to a Man, and it being found with him, he was taken by a Warrant and put into Priſon and tried for his Life, which is a great Trouble to me, but he was cleared by the Law, having a Man who proved I ſold him the Sack: Then I was taken for the ſame Fact, and was committed to Priſon, and was found guilty of the ſame, and was to be whipped for that Crime, but choſe rather to be tranſported to this Country than to ſuffer that Puniſhment; and being Servant with one Edward Mayne in Kent County, ſtole from him one Hat and pair of Gloves, and ran away from him; and went and ſtole a Suit of Cloaths from one William Melliner; and from thence I came to John Garretſon's at Chriſtiana, and broke his Houſe and ſtole one Waſtecoat and a pair of Breeches, a Crock of Honey and a Loaf of Bread; and being apprehended for the ſame, was committed to this Priſon of New-Caſtle; and thinking to make my Eſcape, went and put Fire in the dormant Window in the upper Part, the which wicked Crime, with all mine other Offences, has brought me to this ſhameful and untimely End. I humbly beg, and deſire all young Perſons who behold me this Day, may take Warning by me, and that they may not be guilty of Breaking the LORD's-DAY or blaſpheming his HOLY NAME, which I was ſo much guilty of; and that they may not diſobey their Parents, nor keep bad Company, or frequent Taverns. I declare, now as I am a dying Man, William Scott, whom I ſaid was with me a breaking John Garretſon's Houſe, was not, nor any other Perſon.

William Kelſey.

Philadelphia, March 13.

On Sunday Night laſt died here Thomas Rutter, Senior, of a ſhort Illneſs. He was the firſt that erected an Iron-Work in Pennſylvania.

To the Publiſher of the Pennſylvania Gazette.

Printerum eſt errare.

SIR,

AS your laſt Paper was reading in ſome Company where I was preſent, theſe Words were taken Notice of in the Article concerning Governor Belcher, [After which his Excellency, with the Gentlemen trading to New-England, died elegantly at Pontack's] The Word died ſhould doubtleſs have been dined, Pontack's being a noted Tavern and Eating-houſe in London for Gentlemen of Condition; but this Omiſſion of the Letter (n) in that Word, gave us as much Entertainment as any Part of your Paper. One took the Opportunity of telling us, that in a certain Edition of the Bible, the Printer had, where David ſays I am fearfully and wonderfully made, omitted the Letter (e) in the laſt Word, ſo that it was, I am fearfully and wonderfully mad; which occaſion'd an ignorant Preacher, who took that Text, to harangue his Audience for half an hour on the Subject of Spiritual Madneſs. Another related to us, that when the Company of Stationers in England had the Printing of the Bible in their Hands, the Word (not) was left out in the Seventh Commandment, and the whole Edition was printed off with Thou ſhalt commit Adultery, inſtead of Thou ſhalt not, &c. This material Erratum induc'd the Crown to take the Patent from them which is now held by the King's Printer. The Spectator's Remark upon this Story is, that he doubts many of our modern Gentlemen have this faulty Edition by 'em, and are not made ſenſible of the Miſtake. A Third Perſon in the Company acquainted us with an unlucky Fault that went through a whole Impreſſion of Common-Prayer-Books; in the Funeral Service, where theſe Words are, We ſhall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an Eye, &c. the Printer had omitted the (c) in changed, and it read thus, We ſhall all be hanged, &c. And laſtly, a Miſtake of your Brother News-Printer was mentioned, in The Speech of James Prouſe written the Night before he was to have been executed, inſtead of I die a Proteſtant, he has put it, I died a Proteſtant. Upon the whole you came off with the more favourable Cenſure, becauſe your Paper is moſt commonly very correct, and yet you were never known to triumph upon it, by publickly ridiculing and expoſing the continual Blunders of your Contemporary. Which Obſervation was concluded by a good old Gentleman in Company, with this general juſt Remark, That whoever accuſtoms himſelf to paſs over in Silence the Faults of his Neighbours, ſhall meet with much better Quarter from the World when he happens to fall into a Miſtake himſelf; for the Satyrical and Cenſorious, whoſe Hand is againſt every Man, ſhall upon ſuch Occaſions have every Man's Hand againſt him.

I am, SIR, your Friend, &c.
